In Memory of Judge D. W. Bartlett

Senator Watson offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 363)

Whereas, In the passing of Judge D. W. Bartlett on the twenty-ninth day of March, 1963, the people of the City of Waco, McLennan County and the State of Texas, suffered the loss of a beloved citizen; and

Whereas, Judge Bartlett was born in Wise County. He lived in Plainview and Wellington most of his early life. He attended Goodnight and Decatur Colleges. At the beginning of World War I he joined the 36th Division, and went overseas with that outfit for more than a year. At the end of the war, he entered Baylor University in the fall of 1919 and was the first man to graduate from that institution's rejuvenated law school in 1923; and

Whereas, He entered private practice in Waco in 1924 and a year later was elected to the 39th Legislature where he served one term. In 1925 he was elected city judge in Waco. He served two terms at that post; and

Whereas, Judge Bartlett was elected to the 54th District Court in 1931. He held that position for 31 years. The judge gained the reputation as a man of iron by virtue of his many swift comebacks from an almost insurmountable string of physical infirmities. Under the application of his theory "Apply the law with a generous sprinkling of plain common horse sense," he became one of the most colorful judges in the state. Most notable of his courtroom firsts, was the entry of television cameras into the courtroom for the first time anywhere; and

Whereas, Judge Bartlett by his kindly life set an example of Christian living to be followed by his contemporaries and those of succeeding generations. He always took special interest in the welfare and progress of his community and contributed generously of his time and effort to the benefit of his fellow man; and

Whereas, He is survived by his wife, Mrs. D. W. Bartlett, three daughters, Mrs. John B. Jenkins, Mrs. Kenneth E. Palmer of Waco, and Mrs. John D. Burton of College Station; and

Whereas, Judge Bartlett's contributions to his community, to the State of Texas, and to the betterment of society itself won the esteem of all who knew him and he will be greatly missed by many friends throughout McLennan County as well as the State of Texas; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the desire of the Senate of the Fifty-eighth Legislature to pay tribute to this fine citizen, and, be it further

Resolved, That a page be set aside in the Senate Journal as a memorial to Judge D. W. Bartlett; and, be it further

Resolved, That an enrolled copy of this resolution be sent to the surviving members of his family as a token of respect and sympathy.

WATSON
